

Vixx by Ambla collection by Oniro

Vixx, the vinyl upholstery collection of Oniro.

The journey to a new vinyl collection:

Inspired by the colours and structures from our existing upholstery collections, we travelled around Europe to search for the best quality vinyl upholstery materials.

Quality was the most important requirement for this collection. But we wanted more: the material had to be flame retardant, should be easy to clean, easy to upholster and have a high abrasion resistance. Also the right design, colours and structures were needed to be able to finish the search. We had a lot of demand but we succeeded!

As a result Oniro has started as a distributor for Ambla in the Benelux as of 1st of April 2016

We made our own beautiful selection from the Ambla collection. Here we looked at quality, texture, colour and the right designs to suit us.

We are very proud of the result: a nice balanced collection with many colours and different textures.

The Vixx by Ambla can be beautifully combined with our other collections.
